Hughes must stand aside over Bega Action

NSW State Manager for Timber Communities Australia, Jim Adams, has called upon Bega Valley Shire Councilor Keith Hughes to stand down from his position on council while his alleged involvement in the stopping of a logging truck in Carp Street in Bega last week is investigated by NSW Police.

“It has been suggested to me” Mr. Adams said “that Councilor Hughes may have been directly involved in the stopping of the truck in order to permit an accomplice to then chain himself to the truck”.

“If this is shown by the NSW Police report and investigation into the matter to be correct, Mr. Hughes should resign from council immediately” Mr. Adams said.

“It is a pathetic joke” Mr. Adams said “that a person capable of irresponsible actions of the kind recently attributed to Mr. Hughes could even start to consider himself as a suitable candidate to represent decent law abiding citizens of this country at any level of Government”.

Ends.
